

Howling at the Moon

Adventure Requirements

Complete the following Requirements.

1. Show you can communicate in at least two different ways.
2. Work with your den or family to create an original skit.
3. Work together with your den or family to plan, prepare, and rehearse a campfire program to present at a den meeting or pack program.
4. Perform your role for a den meeting, pack program, or with your family!.

Parent Corner

This adventure is all about communicating and getting your Cub Scout out of their shell. While this adventure can be done on your own, this might be one where meeting online with your fellow den mates may add to the fun. As an alternative, during 2020 and 2021, we host virtual pack meetings where your Cub can submit a video skit or serve on our virtual color guard to help complete this adventure. Visit www.svmbc.org/cub-scout-fun to find out more.

RANK ADVENTURES

Howling At The Moon

Requirement 1: Communicate Two Ways

Materials Needed

- Wolf Handbook

Instructions

1. Show that you can communicate at least 2 different ways.
2. Use your Wolf Cub Scout Handbook to learn how to say the Cub Scout Motto in American Sign Language. Practice and show a family or den member.
3. Communicate an action or feeling to a family or den member using non-verbal communication.

Types of Communication

Video 1: Click the video above to see how to sign the Cub Scout Motto!

There are four different ways to communicate:

1. Verbal communication is when you use your voice to communicate, like when you talk or sing.
2. Non-verbal communication uses facial expression, body language, and motions to communicate without words.
3. Written communication is just that. People write in letters, emails, books, magazines, newspapers, and material on the internet.
4. Visual communication includes graphs, charts, maps, photographs, and art to tell stories.

Pee Wee Says

Do you know any other Cub Scout words in sign language?

Howling At The Moon

Requirement 2: Create an Original Skit

Materials Needed

- Props and costumes for the skit.
- Google

Instructions

1. Work with your family or den to create an original skit.
2. To get ideas, work with an adult to search the internet for videos or written skits.

Plan Your Skit

What is the name of your skit?

What are the characters of your skit? Who is playing each part?

What do the characters say in your skit?

What props are needed for your skit?

What costumes do you need for your skit?

RANK ADVENTURES

Howling At The Moon

Requirement 3: Campfire

Materials Needed

- None

Instructions

1. Work with your family or den to plan, prepare and rehearse a campfire program to present at a den meeting, pack program or family activity.
2. Use the template below for planning your campfire program.

Campfire Program

Write your campfire ideas below

Opening Something to get everyone's attention	Songs Your favorite Cub Scout songs!
Stories & Skits Cub Scout skits go here! Be sure to add your own original skit from before to the program.	Closing Your final skit, song, or cheer!

Pee Wee Says

I always like to do the "Wolf Cheer"! To give the Wolf Cheer, do a wolf howl 4 times, each time turning one quarter of a turn.

RANK ADVENTURES

Howling At The Moon

Requirement 4: Showtime!

Materials Needed

- Props and costumes for the role.

Instructions

1. Practice your role that you will play in the campfire program and your skit.
2. Perform your role for your den, pack or family.

Showtime

Remember to a Cub Scout just needs to "Do Your Best"! You got this!

Pee Wee Says

Practice makes perfect, so be sure to practice your skit! Just a few minutes of practice will make a big difference in the way you feel when you perform. Practice with your family before going on stage.