

Duty to God in Action

Adventure Requirements

Complete the following requirements: 1 and 2 and at least two others.

1. Discuss with your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult what it means to do your duty to God. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life.
2. Under the direction of your parent, guardian, or religious or spiritual leader, do an act of service for someone in your family, neighborhood, or community. Talk about your service with your family. Tell your family how it related to duty to God.
3. Earn the religious emblem of your faith that is appropriate for your age. If you have not done so already.
4. With your parent, guardian, or religious or spiritual leader, discuss and make a plan to do two things you think will help you better do your duty to God. Do these things for a month.
5. Discuss with your family how the Scout Oath and Scout Law relate to your beliefs about duty to God.
6. For a least a month, pray or reverently meditate each day as taught by your family or faith community.

Parent Corner

Inspiration and support for your child's spiritual development will come primarily from your family and/or your faith leaders. While reverence and duty to God have always been part of Scouting values, the Boy Scouts of America does not promote any specific religion and has always been nonsectarian. There is no requirement that scouts identify with a particular religion or faith. In keeping with these principles, your Scout will need your guidance to complete requirements for this Duty to God and You adventure.
